

With the user changed label commands, the standard labels occur now in the following form:

- The label for the first level is a long dash (em dash).
 - That for the second level a medium dash (en dash).
 - And that for the third level a short dash, a hyphen.
 - Changed label symbols should be uniform for the whole users document.
 - Also not changed several times within the document.
- As shown here.